CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors, members of the class of "42" of Killbuck High School located at Killbuck, Ohio, Holmes County, in the United States of America, being of sound mind and body do draw up and leave with our sincere wishes for the future happiness this, our last will and testament. Knowing our days of schooling are numbered we hereby request that our desires be carried to the fullest extent.

- Item I To the Juniors we leave anything we may have that they would want. We will not be needing any of it.
- Item II To the faculty we bequeath all the troubles and joys of producing a class efficient enough to fill the vacancy left by us. (What a task).
- Item III To the Sophomores and Freshmen we leave a feeling of sympathy for we know you will get none from those in the class ahead of you.

Betty Moore: Her wedding ring to Edith Richards.

Margaret Snyder: Her ambition to be a farmer's wife to Frances Bush and Lois Patterson.

Mary Jane Snyder: Her quietness and good behavior to Doris Levingood.

Margaret Purdy: Her shyness of boys to Jane Ling and her expression "I don't care" to Joan.

Margaret AuFrance: Her love of the Moore family to Gloria Teeling.

Pearl Patterson: Her engagement Ring to Lola Snow.

Geneva Christopher: Her gift of gab along the story telling line to Dick Schibe. Watch it Dick!

Jean Shrimplin: Her cornet goes to Virginia Marks.

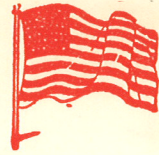

Marcella Clark: Her ability to go steady to her sister Dorothy.

Herbert Doolittle: His ability to keep late hours and yet get to school on time to Wayne Lisle. "Don't spoil my record Wayne."

Bob Coffey: His immunity from going steady with any girl to Karl Kidd.

OUR ANNUAL

Delno Nyhart: His basketball ability to Bob Hoxworth and his love technique to Carl Allison,

Maurice Mohler: One comb which is his most precious to Dean Croft.

Don Taylor: Wills Joan to Max Reed. Treat her kindly Max.

Earl Smith: His luck for finding girls to Bud Hall. Good luck Bud.

Dean Crosky: His Height to Harold Renner,

Bernard McKelvey: His executive ability to Sam Matheny and his dancing ability to Rodney Ridenbaugh.

Edward Selders: To talk the teachers into anything, to Bud Hall.

John Ling: His ability to get away with murder in study hall to Bill Lawson .

May our direct wishes not be held against us. We, the Seniors, declare this to be our last will and testament.

CLASS PROPHECY

"Pardon me boys, is that the Chatnooga Choo Choo?" "Yes suh, Madam, on track 29." There before my eyes was a streamlined ultra-modern pullman. Just looking at it made me feel I was going to have the most wonderful experience of my life. As I entered the train and sat in the seat, looking out over the great city it seemed a miracle. Suddenly, I realized the train was moving, moving southward to my destination, Florida.

As I sat there gazing out the window watching the magnificent mountains of Tennessee I heard a cheerful voice say to me, "Pardon me, are you comfortable?" The voice sounded very familiar. I looked up and there stood Mary Jane Snyder, an old classmate of mine! "Why, hello Mary Jane. Don't you recognize me?" "Hello", she replied. "Are you traveling too?" I asked. "No", she replied, "I'm a hostess on the train, didn't you know?" "No, you see this is the first time I have been on the Chatnooga Choo Choo. I have often wondered what became of you since that day you graduated." "I acquired this job a few months after graduating and I like it very much." Just then someone called for her. She called back she would see me later. I was glad she had found something she enjoyed. I waited expectantly throughout the rest of the trip to talk with Mary Jane. She was always occupied and I had to be content with what little she had told me of herself.

After three days of traveling the train pulled in at Cola, Florida. The first thing I did was summon a taxi. The driver took me directly to the Cola Hotel for Women without asking where I wished to go. I paid my fare and entered the hotel. I was given a charming room on the third floor. I went to bed immediately since it was late when I arrived at the hotel.

As I laid in bed the next morning I planned what I had to do before going to visit the nearby army camp. Lets see, first; I want to go shopping to get something to wear to the army and I must go to the beauty parlor. I realized I should of been up hours ago. I hurried and dressed, then went down for my breakfast. After breakfast I started on my shopping tour.

As I walked past the shops I couldn't decide which one to enter until I saw a very unusual shop. As I stepped into the door a young gentleman walked in front of me and said, "welcome madam, to the Fussy Wussey Shop for Women

Hats we see that are so femin'
Flowers and feathers make the hat
Makes men say, 'Ahh---what's that!

OUR ANNUAL

Dresses and shoes and coats we sell
Things to numerous to tell
All sizes and shapes you will find
And if you can't, oh my, somethin' wrong!

He led me into the dress department. I thought it was very strange to have men clerks in a dress shop. I wondered who the manager of the shop could be to have men clerks. I was brought out of my thoughts by the clerk. "Excuse me, madam, how do you do. Is there anything I can do for you?" "Oh yes, I would like very much to see something suitable to wear to the Armee." He showed me dress after dress, but I couldn't decide which was best. A gorgeous thing I saw at last -- the kind that makes money go fast, which I purchased at sight. Alas! too late -- it wasn't right. I discovered after buying the dress, it had a button off! I'll take this up with the manager of the firm. (Anyway I'm curious to see who is manager.)

After getting lost two or three times I finally found the manager's office. There was no office girl in the reception room so I walked into the next room. I discovered too late it was a mistake, for there was the manager on his secretary's lap. Wait a minute -- the manager is Bob Coffey and the secretary's lap he's sitting on is Pearl Patterson. This was just a little too much of a surprise to me. As a result I went right back out the door before I could regain my senses and my button.

From a force of habit I looked at my watch. Heavens! In two hours my taxi will be here to take me to the camp. I'll have to leave my shampoo and wave go. As I was walking back to the hotel I got so tired I wanted to sit down for a while. I couldn't see anything to sit on -- a fire plug, why not? I was resting so comfortably when an officer walked up to me. He didn't give me a chance to explain, he took me to the station and booked me as parking on a fire plug. I waited till my case was ready to be tried. I was frightened for I did want to make the taxi. My fear vanished when I was marched in front of the judge and saw it was Margaret Purdy. It was a cinch from then on for Margaret also recognized me. I asked her how she came to choose law for a career. She told me, "there wasn't anything else I could do and besides, I like this. You know I always wanted to be something different." I then made a dash for my hotel to catch my taxi.

I arrived at Camp Catchall about 10:00 in the forenoon. As I was walking along on my way to the reception room to meet my guide to show me around, I noticed a sign. It read: Madame LaFrance's Saloon for Men. I wasn't a man but I did need a finger wave so bad. I walked in. I asked, "Is there any chance of a lady getting a shampoo and wave?" "Sorry", as she turned to me.

A look of recognition came over both of our faces. Of course, I should have known by the name of the saloon that the operator would be Margaret AuFrance. She smiled and said, "I'd be glad to be of service to a classmate. Once as I happened to look in a mirror which showed the reflection of the door, I saw a very handsome man enter the doorway. I thought he looked familiar, but I dismissed the idea until I heard him say, "Shampoo and wave, please, just the usual way." Imagine Maurice Mohler getting a shampoo and wave, but he always did have such a cute wave.

After I had said goodbye to Margaret I went to the reception room, there I found my guide was sick with measles. To take his place was to be a tough sergeant, as they informed me. I was beginning to think I wouldn't like that until the tough sergeant turned out to be Bernard McKelvey. I asked him how he had become a sergeant. He said with a smile, "By saving the cook, Earl Smith, from being murdered." I asked him what he meant. He said, "it's very simple, his cooking is just that bad."

Bernard informed me that there was to be an entertainment by a popular comedian, singer and guest stars. So I thought I had better go to my room. A hostess was sharing her room with me. I must of fallen asleep for when I awoke my roommate was there. She had her back to me, and I could not see her face. When she had finished combing her hair she turned toward me. I had the surprise of my life for there stood Betty Moore now known as Betty Boyd. It seemed funny she would be there. I asked her the reason and she replied, "why shouldn't I be here? I have to keep an eye on Jerald. I'm sorry I must leave now for I'm on duty."

I had been given a ring side seat where I had a good view of the orchestra pit and the stage. The music of the orchestra filled the room. The spotlight is on the leader of the band, now he's turning around. It's Ed Selders! Now the spotlight is centering on the pianist. Of course, Marcella Clark. Now who will the spotlight find? Jean Shrimplin playing her cornet. I must say the orchestra isn't a bad setup.

Now the lights are dimmed and the spotlight centers on the vocalist. As he sings the most popular song of the year I Still Love You Dear, I knew immediately it was Don Taylor. I always knew he would be a famous singer and here he is doing his bit for his country. "Now, boys, we stop this program for one of those commercials. As you all know this program is sponsored by Fuddy Duddy Soap Flakes who the proud sponsor is Mr. John Ling. Come on Mr. Ling, say a few words for the boys." "Oh, no I'm too bashful. Now we present our famous comedian. "This is Delno Killian Nyhart, broadcasting from Camp Catchem All with his little companion, Geneva Christopher. From then on he keeps the camp in an uproar.

OUR ANNUAL

The next morning was field drill, and I didn't want to miss that for anything. I arrived at the field just as they were beginning. Things were going very nicely until a plane appeared. It kept diving down toward the field until it was so close to the field it seemed you could almost reach it. Of course, this caused the army to be in an uproar. I was wondering who that crazy pilot could be. Before I could wonder, from out of the sky onto the field landed a parachute. It landed near where I was and I was the first to reach him. After I had him untangled I saw it was Dean Croskey. Before I could talk to him he had fled, for he was pursued by a group of army officers. As he ran he hollered back, "I refuse to land with that crazy Doolittle." After Herbert had landed that plane I could understand Dean's intention very well.

As I was walking along wondering if I had to take the train back I ran into Delno and Geneva. They informed me their next appearance was to be in Tennessee, near my home town, also he would be glad to drive me.

We were driving through South Carolina, suddenly the car stopped. Just the same old Delno, running out of gas. Geneva and I decided rather than sit alone in the car while Delno went to that farm house after gas, we'd go along. Now I'm glad I did for there was Margaret Snyder, a farm wife. I don't have to tell you her name isn't Snyder anymore.

After we had the car going again the rest of the trip was very pleasant. As I reached home I was glad to be there and was glad I had taken the trip for it seemed I ran into all my old classmates. Isn't it a funny world, though?

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It seems queer and unbelievable, but we have reached the goal we started toward twelve years ago. The first six years might have gone slow, but we can account for that in the other six. These years were long ones, but as we look back over them we realize we wouldn't have missed them for anything.

In the fall of 1937 we were promoted to the High School floor of the school. This was a great honor for us.

In September 1930, we became Freshmen. We were lost the same as all Freshmen classes before us were. We entered High School with an enrollment of thirty-five. We elected the following officers: Bob Coffey, president; Delno Nyhart, vice-president; Dorothy Shrimplin, secretary and treasurer; Miss Nenni, sponser.

The next fall we entered as Sophomores. The officers this year were: Bob Coffey, president; Marcella Clark, vice-president; Betty Moore, secretary and treasurer; Mr. Cox, sponser. This year passed swiftly for we were acquainted with ourselves and others. At the end of the Sophomore year we had lost thirteen of our pupils.

The following September we entered as Juniors, realizing we had only one more year to go. We were busy ordering class rings, presenting our class play and getting ready for the Junior and Senior Banquet. We elected Marcella Clark, president; Maurice Mohler, vice-president; Betty Moore, secretary and treasurer; Mr. Carpenter, sponser. We lost three more of our members.

This fall found us the privileged class, the Seniors. We chose as officers: Bernard McKelvey, president; Marcella Clark, Vice President; Maurice Mohler, Secretary and Treasury; Mr. Carpenter, Sponser. We lost one of our members by narriage.

The Seniors were more active than other years. They participated in all activities available. The Seniors gave their class play, "The Professor Proposes" in December.

Our work and ability can be expressed in the publication of the annual; and we wish to thank Mr. Carpenter for his splondid co-operation. We also wish to thank all the new teachers for the co-operation they gave us the year round.

We're full of pep and zim,
We can take it on the chin,
We're proud to be a busy-bee,
And if you don't believe us, read and see.

The year of 1941-42 has brought many exciting experiences to the Junior class. At the beginning of the year we had an enrollment of eighteen. A month later we welcomed another member, Dorothy Craig, who had been ill.

The Junior class enjoyed a party on October the third given by our advisor, Miss Smith.

The Junior class gave their play, "Oh My Stars," on November the twenty-fifth. It was a great success. The award for the best character portrayal was given to Bud Hall. Marilyn Alderman received honorable mention. The class play, amateur contest, sale of candy, and several other activities have enabled us to have a substantial sum of money in our treasury.

Three members form the Junior class, Robert Hoxworth, Virginia Mark, and Dorothy Clark, are on the student senate.

Five boys from our class played on the basket-ball team this year. They are: Robert Hoxworth, Wayne Lisle, Robert Patterson, John Mullet, and Max Reed, all of whom we are proud.

The Junior class got their class rings in December of '41. We were pleased with them.

Joan Leguillon was a cheerleader.

Joan Leguillon and Virginia Mark took part in the Declamation contest.

Three members, Bud Hall, Virginia Mark, and Joan Leguillon played in the band.

Two members of the class, Dorothy Craig and Dorothy Clark, entered the essay contest sponsored by the A.A.A. Each received an award of one dollar.

Five members from our class are in the F.F.A. They are: Robert Hoxworth, Wayne Lisle, Robert Patterson, Max Reed, and Carl Alison.

JUNIOR CLASS POEM

First is Marylin so tall and so slim,
But she is always willing to give you a grin.

Then is Carl who is always so gay,
But at times he has little to say.

Then is Dorothy, she's such a blessing,
And how she keeps poor Wayne guessing.

Dottie Craig--she can always blush,
As for love--she thinks its all mush.

As for Bud, he's the teacher's pet pest
For he always has himself deep in a mess.

Now comes Hoxie, tall and stout,
For he's the junior, we all care about.

Then is Jo who is very fond
Of a senior boy whose name is Don.

As for Jane--here's a surprise,
Her heart belongs to a Warsaw guy.

Ah! poor Wayne, he's in a mess,
He can't decide what girl he likes best.

Then is Ginger, oh she's fine,
But the senior boys keep bothering her mind.

As for McKelvey, she flips here and there,
Sometimes we wonder if she has a care.

Poor Johnny is lonesome and sometimes so blue,
His theme is, "Doris, I'm missing you."

Ah! Miss Lois with eyes of gray,
You never know just what she will say.

Then is Patterson, he's not on the loose,
His heart is sold to a lady named Bush.

OUR ANNUAL

Oh! Max Reed, he's in a whirl,
We just wonder who's his dream girl.

Edith, say, in love could she be,
For heart belongs to just W. C.

Then is Rodney so solemn and stern,
He's always wondering what's round the next turn.

Lola is happy for she can always smile,
And she knows that a smile is always worth while.

John Snyder is not least but is last,
So here I give you the whole Junior class.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held at Fisher's banquet room on May the second.

PROGRAM

- Toastmaster ----- John Mullet
- Welcome Address ----- Virginia Mark
- Response ----- Bernard McKelvey
- Speaker ----- Mr. Click
- Special Number ----- Don Taylor

Group Singing

- Special Guests ----- Mr. and Mrs. Egger
Mr. and Mrs. Click

The banquet room was decorated in pastel shades with green and white predominating, which are the colors of the Junior Class.

Following the program dancing was enjoyed by everyone. The evening was drawn to a close by the presentation of a gift to each Senior by the Junior Class. At this time we also want to thank Miss Smith, our sponsor, for the effort and time she has given in order to make our banquet and our entire Junior year a successful and joyful one.

SOPHOMORE CLASS NEWS

The Sophomore Class had an enrollment of twenty-eight members. We lost four members, Ruth Markely, Harold Moore, Estell Anderson and Doris Pyers. We also gained two members; Harold Renner from Warsaw, Ohio, and Joyce Hillamen, from the Pennsville High School.

Doris Pyers, twin in our class, got infantile paralysis at the first of the year and has withdrawn from school. She was taken to the Akron Children's Hospital.

Five members of our class are on the basketball teams; Bill Lawson, Dick Maun, Karl Kidd, Harold Renner, and Dean Lisle. Our class has one player, Bill Lawson, on the Varsity team.

Frances Bush, one of the cheerleaders, is also from the Sophomore class.

Dick Schiebe, another member of our class, is manager of the basketball team.

The member of our class in the orchestra is Bill Lawson, who plays second Saxophone. Two members of our class; Maryann Newburn and Frances Bush joined Jean Leguillon, a Junior, to form a trio called the "Harmonettes."

The newly formed Dramatic Club has in it fourteen members from the Sophomore Class. They are: Frances Bush, Josephine Carpenter, Molinda Christopher, Bill Lawson, Ruth Leckrone, Sam Matheny, Ellouise Lisle, Margie Miller, Jean Mohler, Maryann Newburn, Mary Patterson, Harold Renner, Dick Schiebe, and Helen Waltman. Molinda Christopher is news reporter and Maryann Newburn is on the executive committee.

The following are F.F.A. members; Dean Lisle, Stanely Evans, and Marvin Zollars.

The Sophomore Class had a party on the evening of February 18th. Miss Maxwell, Mr. Carpenter and seventeen pupils were there. Games and dancing were enjoyed by all. Later refreshments were served.

The Sophomore class has enjoyed this year of school and we hope the following two years will be even more enjoyable.

The Freshman Class wishes to thank the High School and Faculty for the reception given them in October. Late in the year Naomi Robers, Carroll Landon, Lorna Jean Croskey and Delores Baker dropped out. Bertha Mae Smith entered from Blissfield school.

James Quillin, Richard Patterson, Dennis Ridenbaugh, Charles Landon and Clyde Prudy did very well in representing the class in basket ball.

Betty Jane Mohler took the position of Joan Leguillion, the latter part of the basket ball season as cheerleader.

James Quillin, Gloria Badertscher, and Clyde Purdy, are all active members in the school band.

Mother: "If you wanted to go fishing why didn't you come to me and ask my permission first?"

Maurice G. "Because I wanted to go fishing."

Betty Jane Mohler says a woman wrapped up in herself makes a very small package.

Dick P. "I hear your brother died and left a lot of money."

Carrie: "Yes, a policeman shot him before he got out of the bank window."

Dean - (using phone) Give me 2-2double 2

Operator: Two-two-two-two

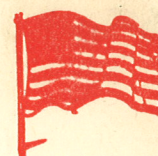

Dean: "Yes, and hurry up. I'll play train with you later."

Teacher: (pointing to a deer at the zoo): "Dale, what is that?"

Dale: "I don't know."

Teacher: "What does your mother call your father?"

Dale: "Don't tell me that's a louse!"

STORY OF PLAY

Sally Shipman and Tommy Davis work as reporters in the editorial office of the Sagville Herald. They are very much in love, but due to lack of money, marriage is impossible. The Sagville Herald is failing.

Elinore Prescott, friend of Rena Reynolds, comes to Sagville. With here is Sara Simmons. Elinore determines to help Rena with the paper by having Sara impersonate the great Hungarian actress, Miss Octar. Miss Octar comes to Sagville in person, and Sherman Pendleton, cheap politician, has the pleasure of denouncing Sara, humbling the socially ambitious Mrs. Trudel, and making a name for himself.

Wallace Erwin, connected with Hollywood, falls in love with Rena Reynolds and, after several trials, wins her hand.

Sally and Tommy adjust their finances to fit a home and get married.

Yacus, the grouchy old printer, retains his position on the beloved herald where he has worked for so long.

Sagville gains in size, population, prosperity, and harmony.

HOME ECONOMICS I-II

The Home Economics class two of 1941-42, began the year by electing the following officers: Margie Miller, president; Jean Mohler, vice president; Mary Patterson, secretary and treasure; Ellouise Lisle, news reporter; advisor, Miss Maxwell.

Our first semester's work consisted of making animal toys, preserves, and knitting for the Red Cross.

We finished knitting in the beginning of the second semester, when we began our project of baking various things as biscuits, cookies, pies, and cakes.

The last project is styling and making our spring clothes.

The Home Economics class one has an enrollment of ten girls. At the beginning of the year we elected officers. Helen Snow, President; Dora Pyers, vice president; Myrtle Archer, secretary and treasurer; Carrie Lou Reed, news reporter; Miss Maxwell, advisor.

At the first of the year we had a party, which acquainted us with our new Home Economics teacher, Miss Maxwell.

We spent the first semester Making winter skirts. Also during the semester we knitted for the Red Cross.

We are now cooking foods suitable for luncheons. This comes in handy since the school has started a cafeteria.

We have helped give many banquets since we entered Home Economics. This experience has taught us many valuable things, and we expect to learn more in the future.

We have lost three of our members: Doris Pyers, who is ill with infantile paralysis; Dora Pyers, and Deloris Baker. We gained a new member, Deophia Fink from Nashville.

LEARNING TO DO
 DOING TO LEARN
 EARNING TO LIVE
 LIVING TO SERVE

The Killbuck chapter of the Future Farmers of America will complete the 1941-42 school year with twenty-five active members.

Don Taylor and Robert Patterson have filled the important posts of president and vice-president, respectively. Robert Hoxworth has done a good job as treasurer and Maurice Mohler as secretary. Stanley Evans was our able reporter and John Ling our watch dog.

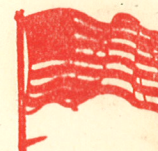

This year the Freshmen and Sophomore class has been a crop and livestock production course while the Junior and Senior class has been engineering soils and management.

The F.F.A. activities and achievements for the year have included winning second place on our educational exhibit and the Holmes County Fair, Local, County and State Pest Hunt, Basket Ball, Soft Ball, Parent-Son Banquet and Parliamentary Procedure demonstration.

The Project programs of boys are as follows:

ACT II. The same. Four o'clock on a Wednesday afternoon, two months later.

ACT III. The same. Four o'clock on an afternoon about a week later.

TIME. The present. Fall.

Geraldine had a wonderful idea for helping Emily have dates. Geraldine shows Bert and Artie a picture of a good-looking chap and passes him off as Emily's boy friend. The trick works and soon Bert, whom Emily likes is showering her with attentions and is quite a problem. Duddenly a young professor appears on the campus, he being the man in the photograph of Emily's absent, "boy friend." Emily is equal to the situation and induces the professor to fake a proposal to Emily and places the two Freshmen girls to watch. The Professor's young bride appears but in the end everything comes out all right.

KILLBUCK HIGH ATHLETICS

Shortly after the beginning of school, we organized our baseball team and started practicing. The prospects for a winning team seemed good and proved to be as the team won all of their games except with Big Prairie.

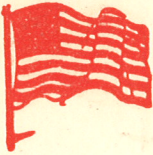

As the weather became cooler the attention of the athletes turned toward basketball. Practice began in mid-October. The teams started out well, won three in a row and then fell again to those boys from Big Prairie. After that the season can be described as average. We had more boys out for the teams than in any previous year, twenty in all.

Although graduation will take its toll, next year's team promises to be quite good as a good number of boys were able to get quite a bit of experience.

Spring baseball and track hold forth high hopes to round out a really successful season for the year's program. "It's not so much who won the games, but how we tried that counts."
